APOLYTIKION OF THE CIRCUMCISION OF OUR LORD YOU TOOK ON HUMAN FORM

January 1

First Tone

N. Takis

Moderato

You took on hu-man form, re-main-ing God with-out chang-ing your na-ture and your es - sence, O Lord, most com - pas-sion-ate. You then ful-filled the law, ac-cept-ing cir-cum-ci - sion in the flesh by your own will, that all sha - dows would be ban - ished, and the thick veil of our pas-sions you would then roll a - way.
Glo-ry un-to your good-ness; Glo-ry to your com - pas-sion.
Glo-ry to your in - ef-fa-ble con-de - scen-sion, O Lord.
