Doxology

This Doxology was composed for my dear friend, George S. Raptis, in honor of the completion of his musical setting of The Divine Liturgy. Melodic lines are based on the sticheric First Tone, although I did include some creative motives and variations. - N. Takis

NOTE: The voicings have been put in the form of Melody / Ison. Thus, for example, ST / AB indicates that sopranos and tenors sing the melody, and that altos and basses sing the ison, or lower part.

We praise Thee with hymns, we bless Thee, we bow in worship to Thee, we glorify Thee, we give thanks to Thee for Thy great glory.
Lord, God heavenly King, only begotten Son,
Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit.

Lord, God, Lamb of God, the Son of the Father, who takest away the sin of the world, be merciful to us, Thou Who takest away the sins of the world.

Receive our prayer, receive our prayer, Thou who sittest at the right hand of the Father, and be merciful to us.
(For Thou alone) For Thou alone art Holy, Thou alone art Lord, Jesus Christ to the glory of the Father. Amen.

Ev'ry day will I bless Thee and I will praise Thy Name forever and unto the ages of ages.

Grant, O Lord, that we may be kept this day without sin.

(Blessed) Blessed art Thou, O Lord, the God of our Fathers, praised and glorified is Thy Name unto the ages of ages. Amen.

(Let Thy mercy) Let Thy mercy be upon us, for we have placed our trust in Thee, O Lord.

11

(Blessed) Blessed art Thou, O Lord, teach me Thy commandments.

12

Lord, Thou hast been for us a refuge from generation to generation. I said, Lord, have mercy on me, have mercy on me.

Heal my soul, for I have sinned against Thee.
Lord, unto Thee, O Lord, unto Thee, I have fled.

Teach me to do Thy will, for Thou art my God.

For in Thee, is the well-spring of life, and in Thy Light shall we see Light.

Extend Thy mercy unto them that know Thee.
